EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Kate is a business professional with a track record of building relationships at all levels and establishing needs to meet business solutions. Outstanding influencing and listening skills combined with a creative flair have led to proven results with both customers and suppliers (UK and overseas) through identifying opportunities and turning them to commercial advantage. Experience in manufacturing, retail, finance, government, creative media, and housing, working to meet fast moving targets in both the public and private sectors.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Leadership and Organisation Development

Kate is an outstanding facilitator and trainer. She has genuine passion for people, their development and improving performance within organisations. Kate demonstrates great commitment to whoever she is working with. She is committed to understanding her clients' needs and then developing and delivering material that is in line with their specific requirements. "Kate transformed my leadership skills and even today I recognise when I need to use those competences when I am faced with a challenge in my career." (Iain Williamson, HR Manager, Chiron Vaccines)

Executive Coaching

Kate is an exceptional people developer - her passion for wanting others to reach their potential coupled with a high degree of emotional intelligence and commercial understanding mean that she is able to add value and improve performance from day one. She is a very friendly and approachable person who has a great ability to draw out the issues and then coach you into finding solutions.

CLIENTS

In the past years, Kate coached and trained executives of a wide variety of companies such as JD Williams, Alphabet (UK) Ltd. (part of BMW Group), Smurfit Kappa, Manchester Airport Group, ING Bank, The Flower Bank, Insurance Broker Ltd., NRL Ltd., Balfour Beatty Engineering Services, Grant Thornton, Four Seasons Foods, Scottish Borders Council, Symphony Housing Group, C-Tech Innovation Ltd and many more.
