

PROFILE

CENER DOGAN

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Cener Dogan is a qualified coach and leadership graduate of the Coaches Training Institute. Her focus is about developing leadership skills in individuals as well as growing collaboration within teams. She is passionate about helping companies creating a culture of inclusion within their organisations in order to maintain and retain quality employees.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Cener has a diverse industry background including Information & Technology, SaaS, Media, Education, Insurance, and Public sector. Throughout her corporate life, she has been a trusted advisor to managing directors and senior executives on business development, partnerships management, relationship building, team management, strategic processes and communication campaigns. Her clients include multinational companies such as BMW, MAN, The Linde Group and METRO Group.

Cener studied Media & Communication, Intercultural Communication and Social Psychology in Munich. She is passionate about cross cultural communication and multiculturalism having founded and established the 'Network for Intercultural Communication' at the University of Munich. She has designed and led training on intercultural skills and provided coaching on the subject for mid and senior management in multinational companies.

She speaks English, German, Turkish and Spanish.

CLIENTS & PROJECTS

- BMW
- MAN
- The Linde Group
- METRO Group

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP

CONTACT

cener.dogan@strategicleaders.com | www.strategicleaders.com

