EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Minoush has dedicated her career to organizational development through people development, since 2001. Minoush works as an international Coach, Trainer and Master Trainer and has developed people across four continents. As an executive committee member and Regional Training Director of a training organisation operating in four countries, she established one of the most successful (award-winning) training teams of a global training organisation present in 80+ countries. After spending years in business management, she moved to entrepreneurship where she has co-founded a centre for child development.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Leadership and Executive Coaching

In her coaching and training, Minoush focuses on helping leaders find their authentic leadership voice through genuine connections, while achieving real business results at the same time. She has developed a leadership coaching programme that works on the internal state of a person as well as their external skills.

Communication and Public Speaking

Minoush is passionate about engaging communication. What makes her a great coach is that she never gives up and always pushes further with style and innovation. "I make a very good living as a professional public speaker and get to share a stage with awesome people like Sir Richard Branson, Tony Blair, Malcom Gladwell and HH Sheikh Al Maktoum. Minoush deserves a good chunk of the credit for helping me get there" (Richard Dean, Presenter, The Business Breakfast, Dubai Eye 103.8FM).

Trainer Development

Since 2005, Minoush has been entrusted as a Master Trainer to develop, assess and certify highly qualified trainers around the globe according to an ISO accredited process. This role requires sharp coaching to be able to mould trainers out of managers, with no previous experience in training, in the fastest time possible.

CLIENTS

In the past few years Minoush has coached and trained managers and leaders in organisations such as BMW Group, Crown, Careers Wales, Danone, Mars, Vodafone, Royal Jordanian Airlines, Oracle, Pepsi, Philips, Price Waterhouse Coopers, Bank of Jordan, along with many NGO's and Government Institutions.
