

PROFILE

PAM KOWALSKI

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Conscious leadership is Pam's passion. She uses her warmth and energetic curiosity to support her executive coaching and training clients in discovering their strengths and maximising their potential and their impact toward positive change, as leaders in all areas of their lives. Her clients appreciate the safe environment she creates for them to explore their own values and widen their visions of what is possible. She helps them to learn skills to build powerful relationships. She helps people choose the beliefs and behaviours that benefit themselves, their teams and organisations, and the world around them.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Leadership – Pam combines her strong practical and theoretical knowledge of behavioural change with a positive motivational style to inspire team leaders to expand their awareness and master their own impact. She guides them to become more effective at communicating their vision and engaging and empowering their teams to work together effectively towards a common goal.

Personal & Team Development – With a deep commitment to developing people, Pam designs and delivers experiential training in areas such as female leadership, time and energy management, effective communication, relationship and team building, emotional and social intelligence, and conducting difficult performance conversations.

Coaching & Mentoring – With over 750 coaching hours to date, Pam is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach, a Professional Certified Coach with the International Coach Federation, and an Organisational and Relationship Systems Coach (ORSC). Other professional coaches engage Pam as their coach and mentor.

CLIENTS

Pam's clients are from a wide range of sectors. They are business founders, CEOs and senior executives, managers, entrepreneurs, and officers in government and United Nations agencies. Pam's corporate clients include KPMG, Unilever, Iglo, EUMETSAT, arvato, Amadeus, and 123Gold.
