

PROFILE

KURT BISPING

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Kurt's high-level international experience in both CFO and CEO positions for over 14 years makes him unique on the SL team. Before joining the Strategic Leadership Group, he dealt with various leadership challenges including the turn-around of companies, shut-down of organisations and post-merger-integrations. He has a strong focus on supporting executives in forming functional leadership teams as well as leading both change management and strategy execution initiatives. Besides supporting the Strategic Leadership Group as supervisory board member he is CFO for a German retail franchise chain.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Executive Coaching & Organisational Culture

Kurt strongly believes that a healthy organisational culture based on conscious leadership and mutual trust is critical for companies in today's challenging environment of constant change, increasing complexity and speed. He is convinced that aligning strategy and change with company culture is a must for the sustainable success of corporations. As a trained Co-Active Coach (CTI - Coaches Training Institute) Kurt has genuine passion for people, their development, and their contribution to improved performance within organisations.

Change Leadership & Strategy Execution

Being a specialist for change and cross-cultural management, Kurt has a proven track record in executing complex leadership tasks including:

- Design, preparation, communication of the shut-down decision for a business with >400 employees and >800 sales representatives including the conception of a public relations strategy.
- Forming and heading a top management team to execute the above project, stabilising the operating business as head of sales and negotiating a redundancy programme with the workers council.
- Post-merger integration of an international group of companies with locations in seven countries.
- Execution of various M&A projects including the acquisition of companies in Germany and China.

One of the greatest challenges of the above tasks is communication. Kurt has successfully managed difficult communications at the CEO level of Fortune 500 companies, workers councils, and front-line employees.
