

PROFILE

KAMILA MIARA-BRION

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Kamila is a Learning & Development Professional with a background in designing and delivering training interventions with specific focus on all aspects of communication skills. She has 14 years of extensive international experience, working across Europe, Middle East, Asia and America. She has a CIPD Master's level accreditation in Talent and Career Management.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Communication & Creativity

Kamila has designed and delivered many training programmes on the topic of communication and creativity. When working with a group of media agencies, she took part in the pitch writing processes and gave feedback during pitch rehearsals.

Change Leadership & Strategy Execution

Kamila has supported organisations both as an external and internal consultant. She is passionate about proactively involving all relevant stakeholders to secure maximum support for initiatives, especially giving those stakeholders a voice that could potentially jeopardize the achievements if not embraced properly.

Personality Profiling and Coaching

Kamila enjoys in-depth one-to-one work just as much as group work in the training room. Qualified in two psychometric testing tools, she is an experienced and supportive coach.
