

PROFILE

ANNE MENCH

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Working in a global media company Anne has more than 10 years of business experience. She was responsible for challenging strategy and change projects and has a wide range of experience in leading change as well as people from different areas in a company – from production to senior management. Working with her clients Anne sets high standards combining strong business context into deep learning experiences – in training and coaching. Our clients value her can-do attitude, her passion to connect with people and especially her positive energy and enthusiasm. Anne's personal passion is to look for people's potential and how to become more inspiring and authentic as a leader.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY

Team Development & Communication

Due to her former function Anne is experienced in the implementation of strategy into organisation and business performance. Working with cross-functional teams and different leadership levels, Anne concentrates on collaboration and on the human sides of change to overcome silo thinking. Anne's background as a certified PM is an asset when it comes to understanding project requirements and how to develop professional skills to improve stakeholder management and engaging communication. She has genuine passion for people and team building to create functional and inspiring teams to drive business performance.

Coaching & Leadership

Anne is a strong believer in people's potential and hidden talents. Her open, sensitive, and also very energetic coaching style supports individuals in raising their level of authenticity and increase their ability to claim ownership for themselves and as a leader.

As a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC) as well as Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coach Federation, Anne works with individuals and groups on leadership skills, personal growth, and life coaching. At present she counts more than 550 coaching hours, with clients from all levels from associate to vice president.
